

Entering Fourth through Sixth Grade Summer Reading

Students are to pick 2 novels on their current AR reading level to read over the summer. Once returning to school, students will take a test on both books. The grades will be recorded as the first two reading grades for the school year.