CALB General Membership Meeting—October 9, 2018 at St. Vincent De Paul School

King Scott LIX and Queen Rosalie 2019

The tradition continues with the announcement of King Scott and Queen Rosalie, candidates.

King Scott LIX will be Chris Boudreaux. Born and raised on Bayou Lafourche in southeast Louisiana. He attended and received a bachelor's degree from Louisiana State University. He continued his education at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences where he received his second bachelor's degree. He and his wife, Khrystal, relocated to Long Beach, Mississippi in August of 2004 and have since called Long Beach their home. They have two children who attend St. Vincent de Paul Catholic School. Chris works as an insurance agent for Southern Benefits, a real estate agent with Southeast Commercial, and in administration at Primary Care Plus. Chris has been involved with the Carnival Association of Long Beach, supporting various events and assisting with the annual Long Beach parade. He enjoys being involved in his community, spending time with his family, and appreciates the outdoors. Chris and his family are members of St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church. He looks forward to a successful carnival season and supporting the numerous charities that CALB serves.

Queen Rosalie 2019 will be Kelly Griffin. A Mississippi Gulf Coast native. At age 7 she was a Page to the Queen of Neptune in Biloxi, and from then on, she worked to be just that, a Queen. Carnival Association of Long Beach has given her this opportunity to work hard and make a difference to the numerous local charities carnival serves. She grew up in Gulfport, graduating from Gulfport High School, receiving her Associates Degree from Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. Kelly is married to Gary Griffin and they have 2 sons, Bailey and Colin. The family put down roots in Long Beach in 2006 and have been active in their community ever since. Kelly works for Harrison County as the Harrison County Beautification Commission Director, and she is also in her 2nd term on the Board of Alderman for the City of Long Beach representing Ward 3. Kelly serves on the Board for the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce and was a 2017 Leadership Gulf Coast graduate. In her spare time, she can be found at the Long Beach Youth Baseball field or spending time with family and friends. Boudreaux-Griffin team co-captains will be Eddie Seal and Jenny Levens.
